DOUGHNUT DOLLIES

Sunstone Press, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 211 x 147 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. American service men in England during World War II called American Red Cross girls Doughnut Dollies. It was a warm and affectionate term designed to show the soldiers appreciation for the morale-building efforts of the American Red Cross. The Red Cross girls operated clubmobiles which were driven to air bases where the girls served fresh doughnuts, hot coffee, and broadcast Big...
