ARTISAN, United States, 2005. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 231 x 180 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. More than seventy delectable and foolproof recipes for home-baked sweets meant for giving-to anyone for any occasion. Nothing says thank you more simply - Or more generously - than the gift of something freshly baked from the oven. With Sweet Gratitude, Judith Sutton inspires readers to head to the kitchen instead of the shops anytime they are moved to acknowledge the important people or events in their lives or to express feelings of gratitude and caring. So whether it s the postman who gets a fistful of Brown Sugar Shortbreads (easily made in minutes) as thanks for delivering bundles of mail or the plumber who gets a Two-Ginger Gingerbread for making a New Year s Eve house call, there s something here for anyone and any occasion. Take the billowy white Coconut Layer Cake to a godchild s wedding party or bring over a batch of decorated cupcakes to a busy mum when it s her turn to provide the classroom treats. At exam cram time, a box of caramel-topped cookies or fudgy brownies can encourage a late-night studier, while Really Chocolate Chocolate Pudding is just the thing when only comfort food will do. Featured alongside scores of cookies, brownies and bars, cakes, creamy tarts, mousses, and a candy or two are notes about ingredients and techniques; tips for keeping, storing, and even packing and shipping treats; as well as creative suggestions for variations, garnishing and serving, and freezing and making ahead. Fifty colourful and whimsical watercolours make the book itself a beautiful and practical gift - even to oneself.
