Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Schism Between the Oriental and Western Churches: With Special Reference to the Addition of the Filioque to the Creed The subject of the following pages has hitherto attracted little attention in this country, although it cannot be thought trivial or of slight importance. This may be due to the probability that the period with which it deals, and the Acts of the cumenical Synods, lie for the most part outside the curriculum of study usually pursued by Candidates for Holy Orders among us. The Orthodox Churches of the East, when brought before our notice at all, seem to be regarded with an indifferent curiosity, rather than with a recollection that they form an eminent portion of the great Christian brotherhood, and possess an unquestionable title to Catholicity, in the technical and accurate sense of that term, as it meets us in the Canons and Definitions of the cumenical Synods. And as to the Filioque, though there may be a vague impression that it did not originally belong to the Creed, yet it seems to be held that it became part of it somehow, and that, as the Creeds may be proved by most certain warrants of holy Scripture, its insertion does not at all matter.
