

Alcohol in America: Taking Action to Prevent Abuse

By Steve Olson, Dean R. Gerstein, Commission on Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, National Research Council

National Academies Press. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Alcohol in America: Taking Action to Prevent Abuse, Steve Olson, Dean R. Gerstein, Commission on Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, National Research Council, Alcohol is a killer--1 of every 13 deaths in the United States is alcohol-related. In addition, 5 percent of the population consumes 50 percent of the alcohol. The authors take a close look at the problem in a "classy little study," as The Washington Post called this book. The Library Journal states, "[T]his is one book that addresses solutions. And it's enjoyably readable. This is an excellent review for anyone in the alcoholism prevention business, and good background reading for the interested layperson." The Washington Post agrees: the book ".likely will wind up on the bookshelves of counselors, politicians, judges, medical professionals, and law enforcement officials throughout the country."

Reviews

This book is definitely worth acquiring. I have go through and so i am certain that i will likely to read through again in the future. Its been printed in an exceptionally basic way in fact it is only after i finished reading this publication in which actually altered me, change the way in my opinion.
