The night student population is not made up of students required to come by law, but of those who feel within themselves a need for educational development and who seek help in the best way open to them. They come to continue an education broken off in the past by force of circumstances; they come to meet needs for additional educational equipment not previously realized. Many who are unskilled come to fit themselves in some line of vocation. Many take domestic art and science for its help to them in their own homes. Some come for a type of mental relaxation after the stress of the day s work. Many come to learn the language of our country and to begin to prepare for citizenship. At times the fear is expressed that we are crowding out the grade night schools because of high-school demands. As a matter of fact, the demand for grade night work is not relatively large, outside of the foreign classes, because so considerable a proportion of our pupils remain in day schools until the seventh or eighth grade. There is, however, an increasing demand not only for the vocational courses of high-school grade but for many basic studies as well. Many a boy or girl who never went to high school, or who left without graduation, desires now to take up work of high-school grade. That...
