Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.As it took office, the Obama Administration was presented with a security environment in Iraq that is vastly improved over that which prevailed during 2005-2007. The turnaround has been widely attributed to the troop surge announced by President Bush on January 10, 2007 ( New Way Forward ). Recent Defense Department reports assess that overall violence is down at least 65 from late 2007 levels, to levels not seen since 2004. A major issue is that President Obama has indicated that stabilizing Afghanistan should be a higher priority for the United States than Iraq. On February 27, 2009, President Obama announced that all U.S. combat brigades would be withdrawn by August 31, 2010, leaving a residual presence of 35,000 a 50,000 U.S. trainers, advisers, and mentors, although some might still be in combat in some circumstances. The draw-down was a product of discussions with U.S. commanders who say that a continued U.S. presence is required to promote further political progress and produce a unified, democratic Iraq that can govern and defend itself and is an ally in...
