Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Joseph Augustine Benton: In Memorial Our brother, in whose memory the following pages have been compiled, during the last half dozen years had been several times laid aside by rather serious attacks of sickness, but after a few weeks had rallied and resumed his work as usual. He and his friends, therefore, hoped for a similar issue, when at the opening of the Seminary term, after the Christmas recess, he was unable to take his accustomed place. The hope, too, appeared about to be realized, for after a month he did for three or four days venture to meet his classes. Though he was obliged to return to his sick-room, the hope of recovery remained. But he did not rally, and his symptoms indicated some serious disease of the liver, which the autopsy plainly showed was beyond medical relief. Our brother retained clear possession of himself during the failing weeks, almost to the last, and, it need not be said, was calm and trustful. On the morning of April 8, 1892, he passed quietly away. The funeral services were held on Monday, April 11, in the First Congregational Church, Oakland.
