But he also lampooned him because He tells us when the sun will rise, Points out fair days, or clouded skies;--No matter if he sometimes lies. That the almanac-maker was not always responsible for the whole contents of his publication, is determined in Sherman s case by a very droll experience. He had prepared two almanacs for the year 1750, one for Boston and another for New York. In his haste to get off the copy to Henry DeForest, the printer of the latter, he was obliged to send it incomplete, but gave the printer latitude to put in whatsoever else he should think proper. But the Dutch printer of New York had different standards of taste than the Puritan author of Connecticut. He inserted the following naive Observations on the months and quarters of the year, to which Sherman objected, as we shall see. Observations On January. This Year begins as the last ended, and truly very well it may, for their two contiguous End, cling so fast together, one can t thrust a Knife between em. I find by the Stars that the greatest disease incident to this Month is Want of Money, caus d by the great Consumption of Wood, Candles, and Canary, three valluable Things this Cold Season: But besides the Coldness of the Season, we are like to have three other Sorts of Weather this Month; First, terrible nipping Weather, where the Maid gives the young Man a Denial:...
