Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Industries of Dubuque: Her Relations as a Trade Center The earliest records of the brave and ambitious settler who came, mid danger and hardship, to seek his fortune in a wild and undeveloped country, arc full of interesting and exciting narrative, and we, of the present, arc in duty bound to hold sacred in our memory the names and chivalrous deeds of those who paved the thorny path which has proved a guiding star of wealth, peace and happiness to the present generation. The natural course of events tends to revolutionize the past into a more enlivened and energetic future. The man of to-day is not the man of yesterday. Each succeeding period of time fain would bring us to a full realization of the wonderful progress of science and civilization. It is here at the site of the picturesque City of Dubuque that the early settler came to seek home and riches. He appreciated the natural advantage of location, the rich and fertile soil surrounding on all sides, and the true grandeur of...
